Tori Shauger is located in Los Chavez, NM and trains horses and ponies, coaches, manages shows and is a carded judge.

She often works with youth and amateurs that are not only learning how to work with their horses, but are also teaching their horses at the same time. Her ultimate goal is for owners to be able to do whatever they want to do with their horses at their desired level and pace.

A good partnership all starts with communication between the person and the horse. Understanding what your horse is able to do and when the time is right to ask for more is crucial. This will be the main "flavor" of the clinic.

This clinic is designed for new, basic and intermediate horse handlers. All are welcome!

The clinic will be held at the home of Joanne Souza, 1339 W Maddock Rd., Phoenix, AZ 85086

Friday, November 13 - Individual lessons starting at 9am. Eight 45 minutes slots will offered and must be paid for in advance.

Saturday, November 14 -

9-11am is focused on the value of consistent communication both in hand and in cart. (No horses needed)

12-3pm is focused on collection, suppleness, contact and the role good communication plays in these key aspects of working with horses. (Horses welcome)

4-6pm is an open Q and A evening gathering. (No horses needed)

Sunday, November 15 - group lesson format

9-11am - in hand (horses welcome)

12-3pm - driving (horses welcome)

These two sessions will be devoted to in hand and driving in terms of planning your interaction with the environment/pattern, precision and scoring patterns. These topics can also be tailored to the groups requests.
